Dear Maria

Freedom of Information request — Notification of Decision

Thank you for your correspondence of 22 December 2021, in which you requested access under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act) to documents held by the National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA).

The purpose of this letter is to provide you with a decision on your request.

Scope of your request

You have requested access to documents about the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS). Specifically, you requested access to:

“...Please provide a copy of the DB Results/NDIS conflict of interest statement and assessment.

*I understand the NDIS Mobile application has just been launched:

DB Results appears to be the developer and contract provider for the NDIS mobile Application:

DB Results' staff

apparently hold senior/executive roles at the NDIS, such as the Director Solutions Architecture <https://www.linkedin.com/in/rallas/>

*Whom appears to be publicly celebrating awards from their CEO at DB Results:

while seemingly a full time employee/contractor at the NDIS.

This seems to be a significant, real conflict of interest

On 27 January 2022, the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC) provided the NDIA with an additional 14 days to process your request for information under section 15AB of the FOI Act, making 4 February 2022 the new due date to provide you a decision on access.

Decision on access to documents

I am authorised to make decisions under section 23(1) of the FOI Act. My decision on your request and the reasons for my decision are set out below.

I have decided to refuse your request for access under section 24A of the FOI Act on the basis that all reasonable steps have been taken to locate the documents you have requested and I am satisfied that they do not exist.

In reaching my decision, I took into account:

- your correspondence outlining the particulars of your request
- the FOI Act
- the FOI Guidelines published under section 93A of the FOI Act
- relevant case law and decisions concerning the operation of the FOI Act, and
- consultation with relevant officers of the NDIA.

Reasons for decision

Refuse a request for access (section 24A)

Section 24A of the FOI Act provides that an agency may refuse a request for access to a document if all reasonable steps have been taken to find the document and the agency is satisfied that the document cannot be found or does not exist.

Relevant line areas have conducted searches of the NDIA's documents management systems and I have made enquiries with NDIA staff who could be able to identify documents relevant to your request.

These enquiries have revealed that the NDIA is not in possession of documents matching the scope of your request. This is because there is no conflict of interest statement and assessment between DB Results and the NDIA. In accordance with the NDIA's current Conflict of Interest Policy, employees from DB Results were not involved in the procurement of the NDIS Mobile App and as such, there was no requirement for them to complete conflict of interest forms.

I am satisfied that all reasonable steps have been taken to locate the documents you have requested and that the documents do not exist. I have therefore decided to refuse access to your request in accordance with section 24A(1)(b)(ii) of the FOI Act.

Rights of review

Your rights to seek a review of my decision, or lodge a complaint, are set out at Attachment A.

Should you have any enquiries concerning this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me by email at foi@ndis.gov.au.

Yours sincerely

Rafaela

A/g Assistant Director
Parliamentary, Ministerial & FOI Branch
Government Division

Your review rights

Internal Review

The FOI Act gives you the right to apply for an internal review of this decision. The review will be conducted by a different person to the person who made the original decision.

If you wish to seek an internal review of the decision, you must apply for the review, in writing, within 30 days of receipt of this letter.

No particular form is required for an application for internal review, but to assist the review process, you should clearly outline your grounds for review (that is, the reasons why you disagree with the decision). Applications for internal review can be lodged by email to foi@ndis.gov.au or sent by post to:
