Dear Alexander

Request for access to documents under the Freedom of Information Act 1982

I refer to my letter dated 18 March 2022 (copy attached) about your request under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Act) received by the Australian Communications and Media Authority (the ACMA) on 8 March 2022 (your request).

As noted in my letter, I assume, from your description of documents, that you want access to the current declarations or disclosures of interests made by the persons concerned individually in compliance with their statutory obligations, which help to identify and manage any conflicts of interest in a way that serves the public interest. In my letter I asked you to let me know if my assumption as to the scope of your request is incorrect.

I also indicated that if you want access to other documents, you will need to give sufficient information to enable the ACMA to identify those documents. In that case, I will consider any further information you give and, if I am satisfied that your request does not sufficiently identify the documents sought, I will, in accordance with paragraph 24(1)(a) and section 24AB of the FOI Act, undertake a consultation process to assist you to revise your request.

Could you please provide a response before close of business this Friday. If I do not receive a response within that timeframe, I will process your request on the basis that my assumption as to the scope of your request is correct and that you do not want access to other documents.

Yours faithfully
