Dear Sir/Madam,

Request for access to documents under the *Freedom of Information Act 1982

I acknowledge receipt of your request, dated 21 March 2022 and communicated by email to External.FOI@fedcourt.gov.au, for access to documents under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (Cth) (FOI Act).

Your request seeks access to documents that contain personal information about individuals. It appears that the individuals concerned might reasonably wish to contend that the documents are conditionally exempt under section 47F of the FOI Act and access to the documents would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest under the FOI Act. In accordance with subsection 27A(3) of the FOI Act, the Federal Court of Australia (Court) must give those individuals a “reasonable opportunity to make submissions in support of the exemption contention” before making a decision on the release of the documents that contain personal information about those individuals.

The Court will have regard to any submissions it receives from the individuals concerned, but the final decision about whether to grant you access to the documents you have requested rests with the Court.

For this reason, the Court has determined that the requirements of section 27A of the FOI Act make it appropriate to extend the period for processing your request by a further period of 30 days in accordance with subsection 15(6) of the FOI Act.

The processing period for your request will now expire on Friday 20 May 2022.

Yours sincerely,

C Hammerton Cole
Registrar
