Dear Ms Pane,

Freedom of Information Request: LEX 48757

Decision

1. The Department of Veterans' Affairs (Department) has undertaken a reasonable search of its records and has identified one (1) document relevant to your request.
2. I have made a decision to grant access to the document falling within the scope of your request in full.
3. The document that I have chosen to release in full is set out in Schedule 1 in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (Cth) (FOI Act).

Authority to make decision

4. I, Isaac (Position Number 62329534), Information Access Officer, Information Access Unit, am an officer authorised by the Secretary of the Department to make decisions about access to documents in the possession of the Department in accordance with section 23(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act).

Summary

5. On 26 March 2022, you made a request for access to documents in the possession of the Department. Your request sought access to:

'I seek copy of the amount of expenditure on labour-hire, contractors and external and seconded consultants incurred by DVA for the last ten financial years, including the current partial financial year.'

6. As an extension of time was applied to process your request in accordance with section 15AB of the FOI Act, a decision on your request is due by 6 May 2022.
7. I have decided not to impose a charge in relation to this request, in accordance with Regulation 8 of the Freedom of Information (Charges) Regulations 2019.

Material taken into account

8. In accordance with section 26(1)(a) of the FOI Act, my findings on any material question of fact, the material on which those findings were based and the reasons for my decision to grant full access to the document follows.
9. I have taken the following material into account in making my decision:
- the terms of your request;
 - the types of information and documents that are in the Department's possession;
 - the content of the document that falls within the scope of your request;
 - the availability of the information requested;
 - Sections 3, 11 and 11A of the FOI Act which give the Australian community a legally enforceable right to obtain access to information held by the Government of the Commonwealth.
 - the Guidelines issued by the Australian Information Commissioner under section 93A of the FOI Act (FOI Guidelines);
10. A full extract of all FOI Act provisions used to make my decision are provided in Schedule 2.

Supporting or additional information

11. On 27 April 2022, an email was sent to you asking for your consent to withdraw this FOI request. This is because the information sought under this request is publicly available, and therefore it would be inappropriate to process under the FOI Act. We proposed that we would release the information to you administratively. However, you did not reply to our email. Contrary to the Department's procedure, we have provided you the documents requested.
12. In terms of your request, Labour Hire is reported as Contractors and Consultants are all external and not seconded. Departmental Contractor and Consultant expenses for the full years from 2011-2012 to 2020-2021 are available in the relevant Annual Reports published on the DVA website. For the 2020-2021 year to date expenses, a breakdown of expenditure will be available when the Annual Report is published later this year.

Access to documents

13. The document released to you in accordance with the FOI Act is enclosed.

Information Publication Scheme

14. The Information Publication Scheme requires the Department to publish information released in response to individual requests made under the FOI Act, except in specified circumstances.
15. In accordance with section 11C(1)(a) of the FOI Act, details of your request and the documents issued to you will not be made available in the Department's FOI Disclosure Log as it is already publicly available or soon to be publicly available and therefore it would be unreasonable and unnecessary to publish this information.

16. If you are dissatisfied with my decision, you may apply for internal review or request the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC) review my decision. We encourage you to seek internal review as a first step to resolve any concerns you may have.

3 Objects—general

- (1) The objects of this Act are to give the Australian community access to information held by the Government of the Commonwealth or the Government of Norfolk Island, by:
 - (a) requiring agencies to publish the information; and
 - (b) providing for a right of access to documents.
- (2) The Parliament intends, by these objects, to promote Australia's representative democracy by contributing towards the following:
 - (a) increasing public participation in Government processes, with a view to promoting better informed decision-making;
 - (b) increasing scrutiny, discussion, comment and review of the Government's activities.
- (3) The Parliament also intends, by these objects, to increase recognition that information held by the Government is to be managed for public purposes, and is a national resource.
- (4) The Parliament also intends that functions and powers given by this Act are to be performed and exercised, as far as possible, to facilitate and promote public access to information, promptly and at the lowest reasonable cost.

11 Right of access

- (1) Subject to this Act, every person has a legally enforceable right to obtain access in accordance with this Act to:
 - (a) a document of an agency, other than an exempt document; or
 - (b) an official document of a Minister, other than an exempt document.
- (2) Subject to this Act, a person's right of access is not affected by:
 - (a) any reasons the person gives for seeking access; or
 - (b) the agency's or Minister's belief as to what are his or her reasons for seeking access.

11A Access to documents on request

Scope

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) a request is made by a person, in accordance with subsection 15(2), to an agency or Minister for access to:
 - (i) a document of the agency; or
 - (ii) an official document of the Minister; and
 - (b) any charge that, under the regulations, is required to be paid before access is given has been paid.
- (2) This section applies subject to this Act.

Note: Other provisions of this Act are relevant to decisions about access to documents, for example the following:

- (a) section 12 (documents otherwise available);
- (b) section 13 (documents in national institutions);
- (c) section 15A (personnel records);
- (d) section 22 (access to edited copies with exempt or irrelevant matter deleted).

Mandatory access—general rule

- (3) The agency or Minister must give the person access to the document in accordance with this Act, subject to this section.

Exemptions and conditional exemptions

- (4) The agency or Minister is not required by this Act to give the person access to the document at a particular time if, at that time, the document is an exempt document.

Note: Access may be given to an exempt document apart from under this Act, whether or not in response to a request (see section 3A (objects—information or documents otherwise accessible)).

- (5) The agency or Minister must give the person access to the document if it is conditionally exempt at a particular time unless (in the circumstances) access to the document at that time would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest.

Note 1: Division 3 of Part IV provides for when a document is conditionally exempt.

Note 2: A conditionally exempt document is an exempt document if access to the document would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest (see section 31B (exempt documents for the purposes of Part IV)).

Note 3: Section 11B deals with when it is contrary to the public interest to give a person access to the document.

- (6) Despite subsection (5), the agency or Minister is not required to give access to the document at a particular time if, at that time, the document is both:
- (a) a conditionally exempt document; and
 - (b) an exempt document:
 - (i) under Division 2 of Part IV (exemptions); or
