Dear Mr Wilkinson

Application for documents under Freedom of Information Act 1982

I refer to your request of 13 January 2015 under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 ('the FOI Act') seeking documents relating to proposed or future tourism development or grants with The Entrance NSW 2261 and its surrounding areas.

I am an officer authorised under section 23 of the FOI Act to make all decisions in respect of requests for documents received by Tourism Australia under the FOI Act.

Documents

Various officers of Tourism Australia have undertaken a thorough search for your requested documents and no documents have been located.

Therefore, I am satisfied that there are no documents within the scope of your request in the possession of Tourism Australia.

I advise that Tourism Australia does not provide, support or fund any grants.

Review Rights

You have two alternative options for review of my decision. The first is an internal review within Tourism Australia. The second option is review by the Australian Information Commissioner.

Internal review

Section 54 of the FOI Act gives you the right to apply for an internal review of my decision. If you make an application for internal review it will be conducted by an officer of Tourism Australia (other than me) appointed by the Managing Director, to conduct a review and make a completely fresh decision on the merits of the case.

Application for a review of the decision must be made within 30 days after the day of receipt of this letter.

You do not have to pay any fees or processing charges for an internal review, except for providing access to any additional relevant material located as a result of the review (for example, photocopying, inspection, etc). No particular form is required but it would assist the decision-maker were you to set out in the application the grounds on which you consider that the decision should be reviewed.

Application for a review of the decision should be addressed to:

Yours sincerely

PP
