Dear JS

Extension of time for processing your freedom of information request

I refer to your email dated 30 May 2022 in which you request access, under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (Cth), to:

a copy of the originating/ initiating court documents in the matter of Australian Competition and Consumer Commission v Uber B.V. (Uber).

Usually such documents are published with the ACCC Media release but not so in the Uber matter. Media Release 26 April 2022

The ACCC has decided to extend the statutory time limit for processing your request from 30 days to 60 days to enable consultation with relevant third parties as to whether they object to their information being provided to you. This is allowed under s.15(6) of the Act.

The due date for this decision is now 29 July 2022.

Please advise whether you are agreeable to the ACCC notifying third parties of your identity, as that question is frequently asked of the ACCC when consulting. If you do not agree or do not respond the ACCC will not disclose your identity to third parties.

Yours sincerely
