FOI Request: FA 22/06/01134

File Number: OBJ2022/16848

Dear Adnan Qureshi

I refer to your request dated 22 June 2022 in which you have sought access to documents held by the Department of Home Affairs (the Department) under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Act).

You have requested access to:

- 1) The number of persons awaiting ceremony at Marion Council by 15 Jun 2022
- 2) The number of people who have had their ceremonies in the Marion council since 1 January 2022 until 31 May 2022.

This letter is to notify you that a preliminary assessment indicates that you are liable to pay a charge for the processing of this request.

As provided under section 29 of the FOI Act and the Freedom of Information (Charges) Regulations 1982 (the Regulations), my preliminary assessment of the amount you are liable to pay is $32.50.

Preliminary assessment of charges

Under section 17 of the FOI Act, the Department has used its computer system to produce one document that contains information relevant to the terms of your request.

I have assessed the work the Department would need to do to process your request, taking into account time spent by the relevant area to conduct the search and retrieval of documents and produce the document, and have calculated the following breakdown of charges.

Search and Retrieval – 2 hours 10 minutes @ $15 per hour	$ 32.50
Decision Making – 1 hour (first 5 hours free of charge)	$ 0.00
Total	$ 32.50
 Deposit payable	 $ 20.00

Details of the Charge

It has taken 2 hours 10 minutes to search for, retrieve and produce the document which falls within the scope of your request. The one document consisting of one page will require a decision to be made on access and it is estimated that this will take one hour (noting that the first five hours are free of charge).

As the charge exceeds $25.00, a deposit of $20 will be sought if the charge is imposed. Please note that by paying the deposit you are deemed to have accepted the charge and will be liable for the full amount once a decision has been made on the documents.

Timeframe for your response and next steps

The FOI Act provides you with 30 days to respond, in writing, to this notice, which is Thursday, 18 August 2022.

By this date you must do one of the following:

- agree to pay the charge;
- contend that the charge has been wrongly assessed; or should be reduced or not imposed; and explain your reasons; or
- you may withdraw your request.

Once you have paid, please advise the FOI Section at foi@homeaffairs.gov.au immediately to avoid delays in the processing of your request.

Please note that if you do not provide a written response within the 30 day timeframe your request will be taken to have been withdrawn (by you) under section 29(2) of the Act.

Contesting Charges

If you seek to contend the assessment of charges the Department may make a decision on whether a charge should be reduced or not imposed and must take into account:

- whether payment of the charge, or part of it, would cause you financial hardship
- whether giving access to the documents is in the general public interest or in the interest of a substantial section of the public

This is not an exhaustive list and the Department may consider any other relevant matters. Please set out your reasons and evidence in support of your reasons as clearly as possible. If you believe that payment of the charge would cause you financial hardship, please provide sufficient details of your financial circumstances to enable the decision maker to make a well informed decision.

Payment

To indicate your agreement to pay the charge you are required to pay the deposit, or pay the charge in full.

The Department has a number of payment options available, including an online payment facility for credit/debit cards; automated telephone payment system and BPay. You may also pay the charge by cheque or money order.

Please see the attached invoice for information and guidance regarding payment methods.

If the Department fails to make a decision on your request within the statutory time limit, the payment will be refunded.

Processing period suspended

The period for processing your request is suspended from the day that you are deemed to have been 'notified' of the charge and resumes on:

- the day you pay the charge in full or the required deposit; or
- the day on which this agency makes a decision not to impose a charge.
