Dear Mr Pirina

Freedom of Information Request no. FOI 15/027

I refer to your request under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act) for access to documents relating to the banning of Hotline Miami 2: Wrong Number.

I am writing to advise you of my decision that you are liable to pay a charge in respect of the processing of your request. I, Chris Allen, Acting Assistant Secretary, am an officer authorised under section 23(1) of the FOI Act to make decisions in relation to FOI requests.

In accordance with section 29 of the FOI Act and the Freedom of Information Charges Regulations 1982, my preliminary assessment of the charge you are liable to pay is $15.25.

Basis for my preliminary assessment of the charge

This preliminary assessment of the charges is based on the number of documents that fall within the scope of your request. Also taken into account is an estimate of the number of pages that would need to be examined in order to make a decision about providing you with access to those documents.

This letter is to advise you of the estimated charges for processing your request and the amount of the deposit, based on that estimate, that you need to pay before we continue. After making a decision on your request, the department is required to calculate the actual amount payable. When we do this, the final charge may be higher than the estimated charge, however the higher amount can only be charged if the department decides to give you access to all documents without deletions and in the form requested.

Please note that the charges imposed reflect the cost of the work undertaken by the department in processing your request, and do not relate to the quantity of documents that may be released to you, which may be reduced as a result of exemptions being applied.

Your right to contend the charge

Under the FOI Act, you have the right to contend that the charge:

- has been wrongly assessed
- should be reduced or
- should not be imposed.

In deciding whether a charge should be reduced or not imposed, the decision maker in our agency must take into account:

- whether payment of the charge, or part of it, would cause you financial hardship
- whether giving access to the documents is in the general public interest or in the interest of a substantial section of the public and
- any other relevant matter.

Payment of a deposit

As the charge is under $25, no deposit is required if the charge is imposed.

The time you have to respond and what you need to do

You have 30 days to respond in writing to this notice. We therefore expect a response from you by 13 April 2015. By that date, you must do one of the following things in writing:

- agree to pay the charge (this will mean that you will not be entitled to access the requested documents until the full charge is paid)
- contend that the charge has been wrongly assessed, or should be reduced or not imposed and explain your reasons or
- withdraw your request.

Please send your response by:

email: foi@ag.gov.au or
