Dear John Smith

Access Application under Freedom of Information Act 2016 - 22/139851

I refer to your application made under section 30 of the Freedom of Information Act 2016 (the Act) received by Environment, Planning and Sustainable Development Directorate (EPSDD) on 24 October 2022.

Your application sought access to “...the full Eastern Grey Kangaroo Conservation Culling Advice 2022, 2021 and 2018”.

The information you were seeking was publicly available and links to the information were provided to you on 24 October 2022.

In the email of 24 October 2022, the Information Governance team requested you provide further information if the publicly available information did not satisfy your application, or that your application be withdrawn if the information provided satisfied your request.

In the email of 14 March 2023, the Information Governance team once again requested you confirm if the information provided satisfied your application, our email also advised that your application was suspended under section 34 of the Act, and if no response was received within three months EPSDD will no longer be required to deal with your application.

On 20 March 2023, EPSDD received an email from you however, the email did not provide clarification or confirmation that the information provided to you satisfied your request.

As more than three months has passed since your application was suspended and no response has been received from you, EPSDD is no longer required to deal with this application in accordance with section 34(6)(b) of the Act. As a result, this matter has now been closed. It is open to you to submit a new access application at any time.

Further Information

If you have any queries concerning the Directorate’s processing of access applications, or would like further information, please contact EPSDD Customer Service on 02 6207 1923 and ask for the FOI team, or email EPSDFOI@act.gov.au

Yours sincerely
