Justice and Attorney-General

20 February 2023

Captain Jeff Sparrow
E: foi+request-9766-38006ca5@righttoknow.org.au

Dear Captain Sparrow

I refer to your application under the Right to Information Act 2009 (IP Act) which was received by the Department of Justice and Attorney-General (DJAG) on 27 December 2022 in which you are seeking to access:

Document pertaining to "Businesses which have received a fine by OLGR relating to COVID check in QLD app" and "OLGR staff assigned to enforce business compliance with COVID check-ins".

I also refer to DJAG's letter of 9 January 2023 requesting you send to this office within 15 business days:

- the correct application fee; and
- completed Right to Information and Information Privacy Access form.

Authority

In accordance with section 50(2) of the IP Act, I am an officer authorised to make decisions under this Act.

Decision

As DJAG has not received the requested items, I have today decided your application for access to information does not comply with the relevant application requirements of the IP Act, therefore this application file is now closed.

In reaching this decision I have had regard to the Human Rights Act 2019 (HR Act), particularly an individual's right to seek, receive and impart information. I consider that I have respected and acted compatibly with that right and others prescribed in the HR Act as required by section 58(1) of the HR Act.

This letter constitutes written notice of my decision, in accordance with section 53(6) of the IP Act which states:

53 Noncompliance with application requirement

- (6) If, after giving the opportunity mentioned in subsection (3) and any consultation, an agency or Minister decides the application does not comply with all relevant application requirements, the agency or Minister must, within 10 business days after making the decision, give the applicant prescribed written notice of the decision.

Review Rights

You are entitled to seek a review under the IP Act if you disagree with this decision. If you wish to seek an internal review by DJAG, please advise this office in writing within 20 business days after the date of this letter.

However, should you wish to bypass the internal review option you are able to seek an external review by the Information Commissioner. Your application for an external review must be lodged with the Information Commissioner in writing within 20 business days from the date of this letter. Applications for an external review should be addressed to:

Office of the Information Commissioner
PO Box 10143
Adelaide Street
BRISBANE QLD 4000
Phone: (07) 3234 7373
Email: administration@oic.qld.gov.au
