Kelly Pawlowski
Right to Know

via email: foi+request-989-87c5845c@righttoknow.org.au;

Dear Ms Pawlowski,

Freedom of Information Request – FOI15/27

Thank you for your email to the Department of Finance (Finance) in which you sought access to the following documents under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act).

I would like to know what the total annual cost of wages, including bonuses and benefits was for all politicians and retired politicians including their spouses for the year ending 2013/2014.

I would like this as a total cost not separated by position, bonuses and benefits or their spouses. If that is not possible the annual budget for the same request for 2014/2015

Authorised decision-maker

I am authorised by the Secretary under subsection 23(1) of the FOI Act to grant or deny access to documents under the FOI Act.

Decision

Under subparagraph 24A(1)(b)(ii) of the FOI Act, an agency may refuse a request for access to a document if the agency is satisfied that the document does not exist. In line with this provision, I have decided to refuse your request as the documents do not exist within Finance.

Reasons for Decision

In making my decision, I have had regard to the following:

- the scope of your FOI request;
- the departments who have responsibility for the subject matter of your request;
- the relevant provisions of the FOI Act; and
- the FOI Guidelines issued by the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC Guidelines).

In coming to my decision, I note that the Department of the Senate and Department of the House of Representatives are responsible for the requested information. I have also had regard to the fact that these parliamentary departments are excluded from the application of the FOI Act, under section 68A of the Parliamentary Service Act 1999.

As a result, I am confident that Finance does not hold the requested documents. I am satisfied that all reasonable steps have been taken to find any documents that may fall within the scope of your request, under section 24A(1)(a). As no such documents exist, I have decided to refuse your request.

Charges

In regard to the processing of your FOI Request, I have decided that you are not liable to pay a charge in accordance with Regulation 3 of the Freedom of Information Regulations for the processing which has been undertaken to date.

Review Rights

The process for review and appeal rights is set out at Attachment A.

Please contact the FOI Team on the above contact details if you wish to discuss your request.

Yours sincerely,

Cheryl-anne Moy

Freedom of Information – Your Review Rights

If you disagree with the decision made by the Department of Finance (Finance) under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Act), you can ask for the decision to be reviewed. You may want to seek review if you sought certain documents and were not given full access, if you have been informed that there will be a charge for processing your request, if you have made a contention against the release of documents that has not been agreed to by the Department, or if your application to have your personal information amended was not accepted. There are two ways you can ask for review of a decision: internal review by Finance, or external review by the Australian Information Commissioner.

Internal Review

If Finance makes an FOI decision that you disagree with, you can ask Finance to review its decision. The review will be carried out by a different agency officer, usually someone at a more senior level. There is no charge for internal review.

You must apply within 30 days of being notified of the decision, unless Finance agrees to extend the application time. You should contact Finance if you wish to seek an extension.

Finance is required to make a review decision within 30 days. If Finance does not do so, the original decision is considered to be affirmed.

How to apply for internal review

You must apply in writing and should include a copy of the notice of the decision provided and the points you are objecting and why.

You can lodge your application in writing through one of the contact details provided at the end of this attachment.

Review by the Australian Information Commissioner (IC)

The IC is an independent office holder who can review the decisions of agencies and ministers under the FOI Act. The IC can review access refusal decisions (s 54L(2)(a) of the FOI Act), access grant decisions (s 54M(2)(a)), refusals to extend the period for applying for internal review under s 54B (s 54L(2)(c)), and agency internal review decisions under s 54C (ss 54L(2)(b) and 54M(2)(b)).

If you are objecting to a decision to refuse access to documents, impose a charge or refuse to amend a document, you must apply to the IC within 60 days of being given notice of the decision. If you are objecting to a decision to grant access to another person, you must apply within 30 days of being notified of that decision.

Do I have to go through Finance's internal review process first?

No. You may apply directly to the IC. However, going through Finance's internal review process gives Finance the opportunity to reconsider its initial decision, and your needs may be met more quickly without undergoing an external review process.

Do I have to pay?

No. Review by the IC is currently free. How do I apply?

You must apply for IC review in writing and you can lodge your application in one of the following ways:

Post: Office of the Australian Information Commissioner

GPO Box 5218

SYDNEY NSW 2001

Email: enquiries@oaic.gov.au

Fax: 02 9284 9666

In person: Level 3

175 Pitt Street

SYDNEY NSW 2000

An electronic application form is also available on the OAIC's website (www.oaic.gov.au). Your application should include a copy of the notice of the decision that you are objecting to (if one was provided), and your contact details. You should also set out why you are objecting to the decision.

Making a complaint

You may make a written complaint to the IC about actions taken by Finance in relation to your application. However, if you are complaining that a Finance decision is wrong, it is treated as an application for review.

When can I go to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal (AAT)?

Under the FOI Act, you must seek external review through the IC prior to applying to the AAT for such a review. The fee for lodging an AAT application is $861, although there are exemptions for health care and pension concession card holders and the AAT can waive the fee on financial hardship grounds.

Investigation by the Ombudsman

The Commonwealth Ombudsman can also investigate complaints about action taken by agencies under the FOI Act. However, if the issue complained about either could be or has been investigated by the IC, the Ombudsman will consult the Commissioner to avoid the same matter being investigated twice. If the Ombudsman decides not to investigate the complaint, then they are to transfer all relevant documents and information to the IC.

The IC can also transfer a complaint to the Ombudsman where appropriate. This could occur where the FOI complaint is only one part of a wider grievance about an agency's actions. It is unlikely that this will be common. You will be notified in writing if your complaint is transferred.

Applications to the Ombudsman should be directed to the following address:
